quoted by a supplier who said this was the minimum base level for HRC in the country.

Fastmarkets' daily steel hot-rolled coil index domestic, exw Italy was calculated at €786.52 per tonne on Thursday November 26, up by €0.73 per tonne from €785.79 per tonne on Wednesday November 25.

The index was up by €14.02 per tonne week on week and by €45.52 per tonne month on month.

China HRC prices climb as cost support strengthens, inventories fall

By Cindy Shan - Thursday 26 November

Chinese domestic spot hot-rolled coil (HRC) prices continued to rise on Thursday November 26, supported by strong gains in coking coal and coke prices, alongside further inventory reductions in the HRC market, sources told Fastmarkets.

Market participants said strength in coking coal and coke remained the primary driver of the HRC price increase, with expectations of winter restocking continuing to support raw material prices. The resulting rise in production costs lifted the price floor for finished steel and strengthened bullish sentiment in the HRC market.

Weekly inventory data also provided support. One trader source said HRC social inventories fell by 5.30% week on week, while mill inventories declined by 2.44%. Market participants said HRC social inventories remained relatively low, with destocking progressing faster than for rebar.

Meanwhile, small-volume restocking orders from manufacturing end users increased, contributing to a slight improvement in spot trading activity.

Domestic

Fastmarkets' daily price assessment for steel hot-rolled coil domestic, ex-whs Eastern China was 3,200-3,220 yuan ($480-483) per tonne on Thursday, up by 20 yuan per tonne at the low end and 10 yuan per tonne at the high end from 3,180-3,210 yuan per tonne on Wednesday.

Export

Fastmarkets calculated its steel hot-rolled coil index export, fob main port China at $477.23 per tonne on Thursday, up by $0.55 from $476.68 per tonne on Wednesday.

Chinese HRC export offers moved higher again on Thursday, as most mills continued to raise prices in response to firmer domestic market levels, sources told Fastmarkets.

Meanwhile, HRC cargoes were heard to have been concluded at around $560 per tonne CFR Egypt, including freight of approximately $60 per tonne via Red Sea route. However, the material was not of the standard base grade, market participants said.

Small, privately owned mills were offering 3.0-3.5 mm thick, 1,250-1,500 mm wide SS400/Q235-grade HRC at $476-486 per tonne free on board (FOB) on Thursday, up from $475-485 per tonne FOB on Wednesday.

Meanwhile, the best offers for similar material from larger or state-owned mills were at around $490-500 per tonne FOB on Thursday, unchanged from Wednesday, according to sources.

Green steel

Fastmarkets' assessment of flat steel reduced carbon emissions, daily inferred, exw China was 3,200-3,570 yuan per tonne on Thursday, up by 20 yuan per tonne at the low end and 10 yuan per tonne at the high end from 3,180-3,560 yuan per tonne on Wednesday.

This was based on Fastmarkets' fortnightly price assessment of flat steel reduced carbon emissions differential, exw China, which calculates the premium for flat-rolled reduced carbon emissions steel over products produced from the traditional blast furnace-based route and came in at 0-350 yuan per tonne on Friday November 20.

Shanghai Futures Exchange

The most-traded HRC January contract on the Shanghai Futures Exchange (SHFE) closed at 3,173 yuan per tonne on Thursday, up by 13 yuan per tonne from Wednesday's close at 3,160 yuan per tonne.

Rebar news

Turkish rebar export prices hold; local supply remains tight

By Cem Turken - Thursday 26 November

Turkish rebar export prices held steady in the week to Thursday November 26, while shortages linked to the continuing Habaş stoppage supported domestic long steel prices, sources told Fastmarkets.

Rebar export offers were approximately $620-625 per tonne FOB on an actual-weight basis, compared with workable indications of $610-615 per tonne FOB.

Fastmarkets' weekly price assessment for steel reinforcing bar (rebar) export, fob main port Turkey was $615-620 per tonne on November 26, unchanged from the previous assessment.

For wire rod, the export offer range of $650-670 per tonne FOB provided the market indication for the week.

Fastmarkets' weekly price assessment for steel wire rod (mesh quality) export, fob main port Turkey, was unchanged at $650-670 per tonne on November 26.

Domestic

Izmir's rebar market faced a shortage of material while prices still trailed Istanbul's, according to a Turkish mill source.

"After the Habaş incident, mills in Izmir had to expand the sizes they produce. Habaş is still not operating, so material is short," the source said. "I expect Izmir prices to approach Istanbul levels soon."

Rebar offers in Izmir were 37,100-38,600 Turkish lira ($732-762 including 20% value-added tax (VAT); $610-635 excluding VAT) per tonne ex-works.

Istanbul had the highest regional offer range, at 38,400-40,800 lira per tonne. Karabük quotations were 37,400-38,600 lira per tonne, compared with 36,800-38,300 lira per tonne in Iskenderun, including VAT.

Fastmarkets' weekly price assessment for steel reinforcing bar (rebar) domestic, exw Turkey, widened upward to 36,800-38,400 lira per tonne on November 26 from 36,800-38,200 lira per tonne previously. The lower end held steady, while the upper end rose by 200 lira per tonne.

Domestic wire rod was indicated at 38,400-39,400 lira per tonne ex-works, including VAT.

Fastmarkets' weekly price assessment for steel wire rod (mesh quality) domestic, exw Turkey, rose by 200 lira per tonne at both ends to 38,400-39,400 lira per tonne on November 26 from 38,200-39,200 lira per tonne in the previous assessment.

Billet

A sale of approximately 50,000 tonnes of Chinese billet at $507 per tonne CFR Turkey gave the import market fresh transaction evidence below the previous assessment. Additional bookings were heard at similar levels, while Chinese offers were around $510 per tonne CFR. These import levels widened the gap with domestic billet indications of $575-585 per tonne ex-works.

In the Philippines, offers for 5sp-grade billets were heard at $480-485 per tonne cost and freight (CFR), although $478 per tonne CFR Manila offers had already been heard last week.

Spot offers have somewhat been bolstered by a sudden increase in ferrous futures in China today, which market participants could not put a finger on.

Spot price estimates varied in a range of $475-480 per tonne CFR Manila.

"Buyers continue to keep low bids, so there is a large buy-sell gap," a trader source in Singapore told Fastmarkets.

The Vietnamese import market has slowed recently, sources in the country said, with regular buyers taking a back seat amid the recent falls in domestic prices in China.

Vietnam was heard to have purchased a total of 200,000 tonnes of semi-finished steel from Chinese and Indonesian steelmakers so far, including more than half from a major Indonesian blast furnace-based steelmaker.

In Indonesia, offer levels remained unchanged at $473 per tonne CFR for 3sp-grade billet and $478-480 per tonne CFR for 5sp-grade billets.

End users in the region have continued to indicate buying interest at $470-475 per tonne CFR Indonesia.

Bullish Chinese exporters were heard to be offering 3/4sp-grade billets at $450 per tonne free on board (FOB), although some market participants expect offers to fall further in the near term.

A major Indonesian steelmaker has maintained its offer for base-grade 3sp steel billet with February laycan at $475 per tonne FOB since its last update on Friday November 20.

Fastmarkets' twice-weekly price assessment for steel billet import, cfr Manila was $475-480 per tonne on Thursday, unchanged from Tuesday.

The corresponding twice-weekly price assessment for steel billet import, cfr Indonesia was $475-480 per tonne on Thursday, also unchanged from Tuesday.
